MEMORIAL DAY

Tomorrow, we will gather quietly to pay homage to our dead in village squares and cemeteries throughout the land. Once again, these people will live again in our minds. We will give thanks for their love and sacrifice that helped to build and defend our nation. The hope in our heart is that our youth will be inspired to live in honor and defend justice under law as did the great of our past. As long as this inspiration does motivate our citizens, our nation and our future as free men is secure.

Honored guests were Pomona Master, Paul Ouellette; Legion members, Past Commander and present adjutant, John Raphael; and vice-commander, Joseph Marcellino, who were special guests of Junior lecturer, Mary Beth Breton, as speakers for her program.

Both spoke on "Memorial Day" and Mr. Raphael told of the many things done by the Florence Eastman Post, American Legion. Both legionnaires complimented the Juniors.

Parent Group Forms

A group of parents met Wednesday at the Mattapoisett Congregational Church parish hall to exchange views and to form a united force to attack problems affecting young people of the town. The session was well attended. Parents spoke freely of the problems that they had encountered and, out of the discussion, emerged a consensus that parents, though far from unconcerned, are very often unaware of potential danger signs and situations. As a first step, it was decided to call in an expert in order to evaluate the range of the troubles and the steps needed to attack them. Chief of Police, Alden Kinney accepted an invitation to attend the next meeting to give these parents the best information available on local trouble so that an informed plan of cooperation can be worked out.

The next meeting will be held on June 6th and any parent is invited to attend. The time will be 7:30 P.M., June 6th, at the Mattapoisett Congregational Church parish

Democratic Committee

The Mattapoisett Democratic Town Committee met Thursday night at the American Legion Hall on Depot Street in Mattapoisett. Election of officers was held and George Correa was re-elected chairman, Mrs. Lucille Dextraze, secretary; and Frederick Wheeler, treasurer. Attorney Donald Fleming was appointed counselor and parliamentarian.

The committee voted to endorse the candidacy of Charles Figueiredo for the now vacant position of Postmaster in the town. The membership instructed the chairman to notify Senator Kennedy of the endorsement of Charles Figueiredo by the Town Democratic Committee.

A lively discussion was held on ways to further the efforts of democratic candidates for office. Particular attention was given to the candidacy of John A. Langlois, who will be a candidate for the executive council. The membership was informed that Mr. Langlois will be the main speaker at their next meeting. The membership felt that Mr. Langlois will be a strong and vigorous candidate in the upcoming election.

The next meeting will be held on June 20 at the American Legion Hall on Depot Street.

Editorial

Memorial Day is the best of days. Memory has the happy faculty of filtering out the sorrows and bringing through the finest hours, the happiest moments. This day is a day for looking forward with a glad heart and looking back with a grateful one. The very land around us is decorated with blooming bushes and flowering shrubs, the trees are newly leaved. Our world is refreshed and ready for a warm summer. In this vital growing atmosphere, it is wonderful day to reflect. There are young men who will remain forever young because they were cut down in the springtime of their lives. We remember them because they died in our service. They were vital, young, vigorous and their country needed them. They gave everything they had. Some would have grown to be our finest leaders. What they could have been, they gave up so that the rest of us could enjoy life in the best atmosphere that free men have ever known. Other men and women, grandfathers, grandmothers, fathers, mothers, sons and daughters each in their own way contributed to our lives and contributed to the building of our great country. We remember them as they were with a grateful, loving heart.

We will also remember and be shamed. Our cities are battlefields. Snipers cut down people in our streets, looters sack our cities, arsonists burn and young men refuse to serve in our armed forces or desert to the enemy. Do we do our dead honor? Are we proud of the destruction that tears at what they built? Do we deserve to live in the greatest country in the world and permit it to be torn down and disgraced, defaced and defiled? Can we stand on our village greens and remember our dead without shame?

We have a lot to be thankful for, much to and presented the commentary concerning the art works and their creators.

A lavish smorgasbord table tempted the appetite after the program, showing that club members, who provided the fare, were culinary artists. Assisting Mrs. Crabbe was Mrs. Merrill G. Walker.

Mrs. Benjamin Brintnall is in charge of arrangements for a luncheon to honor the retiring chairman of the Fine Arts Group, Miss Lydia LeBaron Walker. Details will follow. After three years in office, Miss Walker is to be succeeded by Mrs. Albert D. Furnans who has been a leading participant. The concluding event was the second to have been provided and planned by Miss Clara Beetle, ardent art enthusiast. Miss Walker thanked the group for the fine support of the "Museum Crowd" Fine Arts year.

Audubon Society Films

Of interest to young and old alike is a free Conservation Night film program being planned for June 10 by the Girls Scouts and the Mattapoisett Conservation Commission.

The program, featuring two Massachusetts Audubon Society sound films in color, will be presented at 7:30 P.M. in the parish hall of the Mattapoisett Congregational Church.

One film, "Conservation and the Balance in Nature", relates through easily-understood examples taken directly from nature what ecology is. It also examines man's role in affecting balances in biological communities.

The second film, "Our Wildlife Heritage," features top-notch wildlife photography. It reveals the beauty of New England wildlife through four seasons. Many scenes are highlighted by slow motion: a goose family defending itself from a raccoon, a hawk gliding in for a kill and geese landing on ice.

Girl Scouts have made posters announcing the program for display in businesses in the Mattapoisett area.

Persons interested in the mounting fund to be devoted to a lasting memorial to Miss Minerva M. Sparrow by the Mattapoisett Historical Society, in which she was so active for many years, will be pleased to learn that the sum is entering three figures as this goes to press, with many future donors who have expressed their desire to give yet to be heard from. Mrs. Marland I. Bryant, president of the Historical Society, and Miss Lydia LeB. Walker, chairman of the Memorial Fund, will have the assistance of a committee, soon to be announced, in determining the form which the gift to the Museum will take.

Spiritual awakening comes in many ways. It can come in a sudden flood of unselfish love — or a quiet, growing spiritual sense of life. A deeper awareness of the presence of God enables you to see things differently. Hear a public lecture on "The Great Awakener" by MARTIN N.
